

1.0 Introduction

This Code of Behaviour aims to set out the minimum standards for anyone involved with the Grange Uniting Netball Club. It should apply when playing, coaching, officiating or taking part in Club sanctioned activities.

- Act within the rules and spirit of netball.
 - Promote fair play over winning at any cost.
 - Encourage and support opportunities for people to learn appropriate behaviours and skills.
 - Support opportunities for participation in all aspects of netball.
 - Treat each person as an individual.
 - Show respect and courtesy to all involved with the sport.
 - Respect the rights and worth of every person, regardless of their age, race, gender, ability, cultural background, sexuality or religion.
 - Respect the decisions of officials, coaches and administrators.
 - Wherever practical, avoid unaccompanied and unobserved one-on-one activity (when in a supervisory capacity or where a power imbalance exists) with people under the age of 18.
 - Display appropriate and responsible behaviour in all interactions.
 - Display responsible behaviour in relation to alcohol and other drugs.
 - Act with integrity and objectivity, and accept responsibility for your decisions and actions.
 - Ensure your decisions and actions contribute to a safe environment.
 - Ensure your decisions and actions contribute to a harassment-free environment.
 - Do not tolerate abusive, bullying or threatening behaviour.

2.0 Players

- Give your best at all times.
- Participate for your own enjoyment and benefit.
- Play by the rules and show respect for other players, coaches and officials.

3.0 Coaches

- Place the safety and welfare of the players above all else.
- Help each person (player, official, etc.) to reach their potential. Respect the talent, developmental stage and goals of each person and encourage them with positive and constructive feedback.
- Obtain appropriate qualifications and keep up-to-date with the latest coaching practices and the principles of growth and development of young players.
- Ensure that any physical contact with another person is appropriate to the situation and necessary for the person's skill development.
- Encourage junior players to drink water before, during and immediately after netball games and training. This rule spans the time from 5 minutes before until 5 minutes after games and training sessions.
- Discourage junior players from drinking sugar-sweetened drinks during game time and training.
- Discourage parents of junior players from providing lollies and sugary snacks before, during and after netball.

4.0 Officials

- Place the safety and welfare of the players above all else.
- Ensure all players are included and can participate, regardless of their race, gender, ability, cultural background, sexuality or religion.
- Be consistent, impartial and objective when making decisions.
- Address unsporting behaviour and promote respect for other players and officials.

5.0 Administrators

- Ensure quality supervision and instruction for players.
- Support coaches and officials to improve their skills and competencies.
- Act honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of netball as a whole.
- Ensure that any information acquired or advantage gained from the position is not used improperly.
- Conduct Association responsibilities with due care, competence and diligence.

6.0 Parents

- Encourage your child to participate, do their best and have fun.
- Focus on your child's effort and performance, rather than winning or losing.
- Never ridicule or yell at a child for making a mistake or losing a competition.
- Help out the coach or officials at training and games, where possible.
- Model appropriate behaviour, including respect for other players and officials.
- It is recommended for junior players to drink plain water before, during and immediately after netball participation. This rule spans the time from 5 minutes before until 5 minutes after games and training sessions.
- Please provide a drink bottle with water for junior players for both training and game days.
- Please do not provide lollies for junior netball games and training. Fresh snacks are suitable eg: fruit for half time or designated breaks.

7.0 Spectators

- Respect the effort and performances of players and officials.
- Reject the use of harassment, bullying or violence in any form, whether by other spectators, coaches, officials or athletes.
